

Hotel information

When booking any of these hotels, mention The University of Westminster and the 21st Service Workshop to get the best rates. You are responsible for booking your own hotels. Please book as soon as you can, and certainly before 1 October if at all possible. London is under-provided with hotel beds, and you are unlikely to find a place to stay if you leave it until too late. We have also booked 3 x twin-bedded rooms at the Harrow Campus Faculty Bungalow for PhD students. Please note on your Conference Registration Form if you are a PhD student and would like to use this facility and we will discuss arrangements with you.
